COUNTY POLITICS. THE DEMOCRATS SHOULD WIN.

There is No Occasion for the Friends to be Uneasy.

Since the nomination of the Democratic ticket in Wake county an occasional sentiment of opposition, or rather dissatisfaction, has reached the Chroni-CLE. We have heard no real objection to the men who compose the ticket. On | county. the other hand it is everywhere conceded that the nominees are gentlemen of exthe positions to which they have nominated. We have yet to hear of a single objection to the personnel of the ticket. Indeed there can be no objection. To be sure, there are Democrats who were disappointed in not getting their favorites, but there is no soreness or disaffection occasioned by it. This is highly creditable to the Democracy of the county.

So far as we can see, there is only one cloud, not larger than the palm of a man's hand, that obscures the horizon of success, and that is one which a clear understanding will remove.

That is on the VANCE question.

Here and there a man is heard to say, "I will not support the Legislative ticket unless the candidates will pledge themselves to vote for SENATOR VANCE." Again others say, "I will not vote for the Legislative ticket if the pledge themselves for nominees VANCE." Such expressions are the chief dangers which threaten Democratic success, and we believe that such expressions are caused by a misunderstanding of the situation. It is very clear to us, as a strong advocate of the is no occasiou for dissatisfaction upon the part of his friends, and that anything like opposition to the ticket from his friends is injurious to the prospects of SENATOR VANCE. In view of the action of the County Convention it is unreason able for any voters to ask the can didates to vote for VANCE or against VANCE.

What was the action of the Convention? Let us consider it calmly and in the light of all the facts. The Convention passed the following resolution:

WHEREAS, We the Democrats of Wake county, in convention assembled, believe that Senator Z. B. Vance has been the bold and fearless champion of the

and the people at large.
RESOLVED, 1 That if there should be any opponent for the seat in the United States Senate now occupied by Senator Vance, on or before the assembling of the next General Assembly of North Carolina, that the chairman of the Wake County Democratic Executive Committee is hereby instructed to make a publie call for a convention of the Democratic party of the county for the purpose of instructing their representatives as to whom they shall vote for as Senator in the United States Congress.

2. That in case no call is made and a contingency should arise on the Senatorial question, the Democrats nominated by this convension, if elected to the Gen eral Assembly, are hereby instructed to abide by the action of the Democratic caucus of said General Assembly on said Senatorial question.

3. That Senator Vance is hereby requested by this convention to embody the principles of the sub-treasury bill now pending before the Congress of the United States, with which he is in sympathy, in a bill free from objections on constitutional grounds and bring it before the United States Senate as soon as

These are the resolutions. The CHRON-ICLE desires to give a few reasons why there ought to be an acceptance of these resolutions by all.

First.—Under them, the Democratic Jones' this season. members of the Legislature are instructed to vote for SENATOR VANCE IF THERE IS NO OPPOSITION TO HIM IN THE DEMO-CRATIC CAUCUS.

SECOND.—If there is any opposition, they are to be instructed for whom to vote by a Democratic Convention of Wake county which the Executive Committee is required to call.

THIRD .- The convention that passed this resolution directed the Executive Committee to provide for a system by which minority representation should be guaranteed in every township and ward. This guarantees a primary election, and therefore the expression of the convention will be the will of the majority of the people. Under that system there can be no suppression of the minority and VANCE will receive all the strength that he has in the county, if he has an opponent. This ought to be satisfactory to his friends. If a majority of the people of Wake county do not want him to go to the Senate, then the representatives from Wake county cannot and ought not to vote for him. That is Democracy-the rule of the majority-and no man can claim to be a good Democrat who is not willing to abide by the rule of the majority. Under this resolution the PROPLE of Wake county-and all the people-have a voice and an equal voice. Whenever the people have spoken, VANCE has never had cause to fear. But they cooking department, the other by two are the supreme power, and no Democrat ought to object to their deciding all contested questions.

FOURTH. -- We do not believe that SEN-ATOR VANCE will have an opponent. That there is opposition to his position on certain questions is very true, and for that reason there was objection to absolute instructions for him. But he will have no opposition. The real fight is to secure a Democratic Legislature Button and Lace, at If that succeeds, there is no danger of

VANCE'S defeat. Those who disagree with him know he is honest and sincere, THERE IS EVERY REASON WHY and they will favor him. But if they do not, then the PEOPLE -all the people -will decide the question. Any friend of Senator Vance to be Lukewarm, trust the people, does not understand or for His Opponents, (if he has any) the estimate in which they hold SENA-of SENATOR VANCE who is not willing to Short Items of News Gathered on the TOR VANCE. In Wake county, in any contest, VANCE would get a majority over any man who could be named as his opponent. That is our opinion; and it is an opinion based upon a knowledge of and a faith in the people of Wake

FIFTH.—But suppose we are mistaken, suppose that there is DOUBT about whethceptionable high character and fitness for er SENATOR VANCE would carry Wake county. Is that DOUBT to be used by his friends as a means of making the loss certain? If the friends of Senator VANCE fail to give the legislative ticket an enthusiastic support because they fear he may not get the county, do they not absolutely give Wake's five votes to Republicans who will use them for Mott or Eaves or some other Radical Reliable? If VANCE's friends in Wake should be lukewarm and the ticket defeated, have they not injured the Senator more than all his critics? The CHRONICLE does not believe for a moment that a dozen Democrats intend to vote against our legislative ticket. There is no good reason why a single one should so vote, and the Chronicle urges those who do not like the resolutions to cease making objections, and go to work for the whole ticket. THAT IS WHAT SENATOR VANCE ASKS HIS FRIENDS IN WAKE TO DO. Failure to do this is to injure the prospects of the Democracy and to injure VANCE. SIXTH. -In addition to all this, there are other questions of great importance besides the Senatorship. No patriotic Democrat can afford to lose sight of them. If the Republicans capture the re-election of SENATOR VANCE, that there | L. gislature this year, they will redistrict | subject dark enough to cause determinthe State so as to secure a larger repre- ed action by the bourd of aldermen. sentation in Congress and in the State Government system and remand the rule; they will reorganize all our asylum and penitentiary boards and other institutions by turning out the Democratic officials -in a word, they will give us a return to the rule of 1868-'9.

Democrats-Vance supporters-fellow citizens:-This is no time for differences of opinion. Democratic success is in jeopardy. Every Democrat who wants Democratic success and good government in the State owes it to himself people's rights, and has stood manfully for the best interests of North Carolina gether and give the Democratic nominees an enthusiastic support.

BOOM IN OUR TOBACCO MARKET

Big Sales of Tobacco at Stronach's, Jones' and the Alliance Warehouses tract awarded. At a later day bids in Raleigh. Every day adds life and strength to the Raleigh leaf tobacco market. Again has the doors of the Big Stronach Warehouse been thrown open for the farmers to realize the satisfactory prices which this house has always had the reputation of realizing. Mr. Walter H. Aiken is its new proprietor and he tells the CHRON-ICLE some pleasant news about splendid crops and successful curing of fine to bacco which he has seen in his tour of the bright tobacco belt, the most of which will find its way to this market so soon as the busy curing season is over. At Jones' Warehouse all hands were busy making preparations for the heavy breaks of next week. Already has this popular house been hard at work handling the receipts of new crop tobacco. Mr. Jones says sales at his house this season already exceed in quantity the sales of last year to October 1st. He has an able force in the field canvassing and anticipates the largest week's work next week Raleigh has ever witnessed since the opening of this market. There

At the Alliance Warehouse, Capt. W. C. Moore is giving general satisfaction. Prices are in all respects equal if not surpassing last years. Every buyer on the market is anxious for all grades and the weed finds ready takers at good prices. The Alliance Warehouse will begin their heavy work next week, and Raleigh will no doubt have more tobacco wagous within her limits than ever before in one week. Farmers are better pleased with the Raleigh trade generally than any other available market. Let our people come out next week, attend the tobacco sales and give the sellers a hearty welcome.

A Correction.

Miss C. Hutchings, wkose kitchen was burned night-before-last, desires to correct the statement that the fire originated from her stove. The kitchen has two rooms, one of which is occupied as her colored women who left a lighted lamp in their rooms and locking the door left. The lamp must have exploded as the fire originated in that end of the building. There was no fire in the stove when Miss Hutchings portion of the house was closed for the night.

Dr. George A. Renn will shortly remove to other fields. The CHRONICLE regrets that flattering inducements call Dr. Renn from Raleigh, but it congratulates those who will secure his professional servicet and citizenship.

There will be a regular meeting of the Board of Aldermen to-night and it is to be hoped the back-bone element will assert itself and for all time settle the li ht question. It is disgraceful that this city should be without some satisfactory system of light longer.

On Saturday morning, at No. 124 Fayetteville street, there will be opened a new white barber shop by Viola & Son. This is a new departure from the long accustomed practice of colored barber shops only. SOME THINGS THAT RALEIGH NEEDS.

Some of the greatest needs of Raleigh at present, as an encouragement to her growing prosperity, are,

1. Electric light and gas works owned and operated by the city, furnishing gas of a good and, reliable quality for not over $1.50 per 1,000 feet.

2. Increased banking facilities and accommodations which will take care of our young tobacco industries. 3. A large public hall and opera Ex Gov. Holden is seriously ill at his house, such as will accommodate firstclass theatrical companies and also large State gatherings of our people.

4. Electric power for our street cars, more lines of rail and longer routes. One line by all means running to Pullen Park, the Agricultural college and fair

5. The completion of the Albemarle & Raleigh railroad to the city, to enter the new union passenger depot. Also a railroad from Raleigh to some navigable point on the Cape Fear river, this road to be completed by Wake county.

6. An enterprising and active Land and Improvement Company, with not less than $50,000 capital stock. 7. A Belt Line Railroad to open up for market all the splendid manufacturing sites around the city. 8. $100,000 Hotel, with all modern improvements and good accommodations for fifteen hundred guests. Prices from $2.00 to $10.00 per day. With the above needs supplied, the population of Raleigh would be 100,000 A BELIEVER IN RALEIGH.
